

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the
public airwaves FREE
OF CHARGE, and is
obligated by law to serve the public interest, not
personal political propaganda!

Broadcasters are obligated to remain
APOLITICAL and serve
ALL sides of political views. A forced run of
prime-time
programming
promoting ANY candidate without proper consenting
views is against
broadcast rules.

Sinclair's previous decision to not air
an ABC Nightline
program (which
simply honored
soldiers killed in the Iraq War)
because it
considered the program to be
"political" ... and
now insisting on
running an
anti-Kerry documentary is far too biased and more importantly a
HYPOCRITICAL use of public airways.

The FCC fines
broadcast stations
for exposing
breasts, airing
"profanity" and what it considers to be
offensive material.
Corporate
consolidation of the
airwaves is a MUCH MORE IMPORTANT

ISSUE.

As a taxpayer of the US, i believe the FCC should be more
concerned about
POLITICAL misuse of
the airwaves, which Sinclair has clearly
displayed, rather than a random
"breast" or
"f-word".

Thank you for your consideration and i
hope that you will look into Sinclair's
violation.
